RHODE ISLAND.

Watch Hill, R. I., June 17.—All the cottages at Watch Hill will be occupied this summer and the hotels report unusually heavy bookings. The summer colony will find every facility for vacation enjoyment.

The resort is on high ground overlooking a wide sweep of the Atlantic, surrounded on three sides by water and awert over by cool breezes that hold the temperature down to an average of 74 degrees. When the cities are sweltering with heat and humidity it is possible at Watch Hill to do 36 holes of golf or to play tennis all afternoon with enjoyment. The drainage is perfect and the drinking water is noted as being among the best in New England by actual official test.

The Ocean and Watch Hill houses are now open. The former has been under the same management for twenty-five years. Fullen's Orchestra is again at the Ocean House this season.

The Watch Hill House, under the proprietorship of A. E. Dick, has been developed to the front rank of New England hotels. Its ideal location on high ground affords fine views from almost every window. Concert and dance music is supplied by the Kalkhof Orchestra of New York.
